

Your Autumn Escape Awaits At Quarry Lake Inn

As the season changes and East London is painted in shades of autumn, Quarry Lake Inn continues to stand out as one of the city's top-rated accommodation choices. A trusted favourite among both corporate and leisure travellers, our consistently high guest reviews are a testament to the comfort, convenience, and warm hospitality we offer.

Each of our thoughtfully appointed rooms is designed to ensure a restful stay, featuring either a private balcony or garden entrance that opens onto our tranquil surrounds. After a busy day of work, sightseeing, or conferencing, our lush garden and deck overlooking the quarry offer the perfect space to relax and recharge.

We're also proud to be the accommodation of choice for schools travelling to East London for sporting events. With Selborne College just around the corner, Quarry Lake Inn is ideally situated for teams and parents attending rugby and hockey tournaments. Parents accompanying their children enjoy the added benefit of our peaceful setting and top-tier amenities.

At the heart of every guest experience is our dedicated team, whose warmth and professionalism ensure that every stay is memorable. Mornings at Quarry Lake Inn begin with a world-class breakfast, served on the deck or in our light-filled breakfast room—always a guest favourite.

Located just a short walk from some of East London's finest restaurants and eateries, our guests enjoy the best of both convenience and comfort.
